

19. USE CLASSES

The Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order, 1948

1948 No. 954

Made

5th May, 1948

Coming into Operation

1st July, 1948*

B2303.

The Minister of Town and Country Planning in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 12 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf hereby makes the following Order:—

Citation and Commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order, 1948, and shall come into force on the appointed day.

Interpretation

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 51.

(b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

* See S.I. 1948 No. 213, p. 4087 above.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings respectively assigned to them, namely:—

“ the Act ” means the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947(a);

“ the appointed day ” means the day appointed for the coming into force of the Act*;

“ shop ” means a building used for the carrying on of any retail trade or retail business wherein the primary purpose is the selling of goods (excluding refreshments other than light refreshments) by retail, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing includes a building used for the purposes of a hairdresser, undertaker, ticket agency or receiving office for goods to be washed, cleaned or repaired, or for other purposes appropriate to a shopping area, but does not include a building used as an amusement arcade, pin-table saloon, funfair, garage, petrol filling station, hotel or premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors for consumption on the premises;

“ light refreshments ” means eatables not cooked on the premises, and beverages;

“ building ” includes part of a building;

“ office ” includes a bank;

“ industrial building ” means a building (other than a building in or adjacent to and belonging to a quarry or mine and other than a shop) used for the carrying on of any process for or incidental to any of the following purposes, namely,—

(a) the making of any article or of part of any article, or

(b) the altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, cleaning, washing, packing or canning, or adapting for sale, or breaking up or demolition of any article, or

(c) without prejudice to the foregoing paragraphs, the getting, dressing or treatment of minerals, being a process carried on in the course of trade or business other than agriculture, and for the purposes of this definition the expression “ article ” means an article of any description, including a ship or vessel;

“ light industrial building ” means an industrial building (not being a special industrial building) in which the processes carried on or the machinery installed are such as could be carried on or installed in any residential area without detriment to the amenity of that area by reason of noise, vibration, smell, fumes, smoke, soot, ash, dust or grit;

“ general industrial building ” means an industrial building other than a light industrial building or a special industrial building;

“ special industrial building ” means an industrial building used for one or more of the purposes specified in Classes V, VI, VII, VIII and IX referred to in the Schedule to this Order;

“ wholesale warehouse ” means a building where business, principally of a wholesale nature, is transacted and goods are stored or displayed, but only incidentally to the transaction of that business;

“ repository ” means a building (excluding any land occupied therewith) where storage is the principal use and where no business is transacted other than incidentally to such storage;

and references to a building may, except where otherwise provided, include references to land occupied therewith and used for the same purposes.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 51.

* See S.I. 1948 No. 213, p. 4087 above.

Use Classes

3.—(1) Where a building or other land is used for a purpose of any class specified in the Schedule to this Order, the use of such building or other land for any other purpose of the same class shall not be deemed for the purposes of the Act to involve development of the land.

(2) Where a group of contiguous or adjacent buildings used as parts of a single undertaking includes industrial buildings used for purposes falling within two or more of the classes specified in the Schedule to this Order as Classes III to IX inclusive, those particular two or more classes may, in relation to that group of buildings, and so long as the area occupied in that group by either general or special industrial buildings is not substantially increased thereby, be treated as a single class for the purposes of this Order.

(3) A use which is ordinarily incidental to and included in any use specified in the Schedule to this Order is not excluded from that use as an incident thereto merely by reason of its specification in the said Schedule as a separate use.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of this Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Section 12 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, provides (inter alia) that the making of any material change in the use of any buildings or other land shall be "development" for the purposes of that Act: but that in the case of buildings or other land which are used for a purpose of any class specified in an order made under the section, the use thereof for any other purpose of the same class shall not be deemed to involve development. This Order specifies the classes accordingly.
